DONOR OPPORTUNITIES

Interested in helping Seagle Music Colony start our Second Century?
We need your talent, time and financial support. Please join us.

Seagle Music Colony trains young vocal artists how to move to the next step of their education or career. The tuition for their summer of experiential learning and training does not cover the cost of operations. Ticket prices are kept low and affordable for the broadest possible audience. The annual income from ticket sales and tuition does not begin to cover the cost of running the Colony.

Please join our members, sponsors, and volunteers in supporting Seagle Music Colony. Contributions provide a critical 56% of our annual budget of around $500,000, and volunteers are invaluable and greatly appreciated. Here are some of the many opportunities available.

SEAGLE MUSIC COLONY LEGACY SOCIETY

The Seagle Music Colony Legacy Society recognizes those who have included Seagle Music Colony in their estate plans. Such planned gifts can include bequests in your will or trust. You can name Seagle Music Colony as a beneficiary of your IRA, retirement plan, life insurance policy, bank accounts or brokerage accounts. Other options include creating a life income plan, gifting property, or passing assets to your heirs without income or estate tax.

Have you have included Seagle Music Colony in your estate plans? Please let us know so we can recognize your generosity today! Find out how a charitable gifting program can potentially increase your income now, and help Seagle Music Colony in the future.

To designate the Colony in your estate plan, the following sample language can be used: "I bequeath 10% (or the amount of your choice) to the Seagle Music Colony, a 501(c)3 organization in Schroon Lake, NY."
