AMERICAN CENTER FOR NEW WORKS DEVELOPMENT AT SEAGLE MUSIC COLONY COMMISSIONERS' CLUB

Seagle Music Colony is excited to announce a new program dedicated to development of new works. The program was initiated in 2017 and takes place annually after our regular season, in late summer and early fall (see p. 28 for details about this season). When fully implemented, the program will host three to four full workshop productions, piano-vocal musical readings, libretto workshops and mentoring programs for opera creators. New operas produced during our main season will also be a part of the program.

The Commissioners' Club has been established to provide support for this new program and will have exclusive member benefits. Members who make a five-year commitment of $5,000 or more above current annual giving will be invited to attend any American Center for New Works Development rehearsal or performance free of charge. This benefit will provide members first-hand insight into how opera is created, from the writing of the text all the way through to a finished production.

Matching Gifts: Does your company provide matching funds for the donations you make? If so, please let us know so we can magnify the impact of your gift.

SEAGLE MUSIC COLONY LEGACY SOCIETY

As we have often said, our donors' support is critical to continuing the excellence that is Seagle Music Colony. This is so true that we encourage you to consider endowing your annual gift in perpetuity through our Legacy Society.

There are many ways to make a gift to Seagle Music Colony in your estate planning. You can name Seagle Music Colony as a beneficiary of a percentage of your IRA, retirement plan or life insurance policy. You could include a gift in your will or trust. There are many other options; which will be the best for you and your family?

Please be in touch with Darren Woods to discuss how you can help Seagle Music Colony continue for many years to come.
